

A SHORT STAY IN PARADISE

Did you sense that the mood had changed
Once we crossed the welcome mat...?
I cannot explain it but
I felt it right off the bat
Then we heard a big voice sayin':
You can touch this...you can't touch that
And it almost seemed like we were Walking into a trap

CHORUS

*The big guy with the scary voice
He ain't giving us too much choice
And the birdman with the flaming sword
He sure ain't helping out none
So when those gates open up again
I say that's when we make our run*

There's a lot of pressure on us
Hanging out in here
I know for certain that I have
Started to feel it
Like maybe there's some sort of Secret treasure near
And the big guy is thinking we are Planning to steal it

CHORUS

*The big guy with the scary voice
He ain't giving us too much choice
And the birdman with the flaming sword
He sure ain't helping out none
So when those gates open up again
I say that's when we make our run*

I gotta say I don't recall
How you and me met up
So I'm really hoping this deal
Wasn't a set up
But if we find out that this stay
Was a big mistake
Who can we trust to help us escape...?
Right...let's go talk to the snake

CHORUS

*The big guy with the scary voice
He ain't giving us too much choice
And the birdman with the flaming sword
He sure ain't helping out none
So when those gates open up again
I say that's when we make our run*
