

DON'T TOUCH NOTHIN' THAT AIN'T TOUCHIN' YOU

There once was a time when it was all Carpe Diem
Now these days that's a thing you cannot do
Because you should never carpe when you see 'em
Don't touch nothin' that ain't touchin' you

There's a card game where you can hold 'em or fold 'em
But you gotta know straight up there's something new
You can still fold 'em but no way can you hold 'em
Don't touch nothin' that ain't touchin' you

Bridge

It's about time the world faced the truth
As many brutal actions have come into view
Things can never be as they were before
Don't touch nothin' that ain't touchin' you

If you ever find yourself in a subway car
I will tell you something that is always true
Better not let your hands wander too far
Don't touch nothin' that ain't touchin' you
