

EDEN'S ALLEY

We were missing fruit
We were missing clothes
All the snakes were hissing
What each one knows

There were fiery swords
There were hidden lords
We had nothing to fear
As long as someone whispered
In our ear

Chorus

*Hanging out in Eden's Alley
Where no one's got a shot to win
Hanging out in Eden's Alley
Where it's harder getting out
Than it is getting in*

There were saviors above
There were saviors below
We had so much to love
We had so much to know

Chorus

*Hanging out in Eden's Alley
Where no one's got a shot to win
Hanging out in Eden's Alley
Where it's harder getting out
Than it is getting in*

Bridge

We always thought we'd be here for good
'Cause we always thought we'd be understood
Hey, you know we'll take our share of blame
But, what the hell, we should not be shamed

Chorus

*Hanging out in Eden's Alley
Where no one's got a shot to win
Hanging out in Eden's Alley
Where it's harder getting out
Than it is getting in*

We were tempted to think
We were tempted to say
This life can't last forever
This must be the end of the Good old days

Chorus

*Hanging out in Eden's Alley
Where no one's got a shot to win
Hanging out in Eden's Alley
Where it's harder getting out
