

FOR THE 7th TIME TODAY

I changed my life for the 7th time today
Seduction is a blessed state the shaman would say

I turned inside out for the 7th time today
Now old symbols can feel the urges and float away

I fell out of love for the 7th time today
Stronger wings will offer the hope of making it stay

I got lost within my head for the 7th time today
It is always a good thing to let the spirit stray

I declared war on my forces for the 7th time today
I know there's a desolate price I am gonna pay

I hated what I fear the most for the 7th time today
I will deal with the sense of loss when it comes my way

I stood against all that lies to me for the 7th time today
I can no longer accept siren songs that betray
