

GONNA GO BY YOU

When people start getting on my nerves
And what they want I have no clue
It's then I know I have to leave
So I pick myself up and go by you

When I go by you
We become ourselves again
Where gentle notions are the most powerful
Where simple fun is the only concept mentioned
Where strength is soft and silence is natural
Where love never has to be questioned

Chorus

*I'm growing tired of being told where to go
I'm growing so sick of being told what to do
I need someone who can slow it all down for me
That's why I'm gonna go by you*

Bridge

When I go by you
There's no one else I want to see
There's nowhere else I want to be
There's nothing else I want to do
Than just to be here with you

When I go by you
Every moment brings a sweet surprise
The peace I feel in your presence
The enchantment I see in your eyes
I would have each moment last forever
And always leave me mystified

Chorus

*I'm growing tired of being told where to go
I'm growing so sick of being told what to do
I need someone who can slow it all down for me
That's why I'm gonna go by you*
