

I DESPISE THIS MOMENT

I got creatures all around me chewing on my shins
I got holy folk piling on more of their sins
Witch doctors are screaming to add layers of skin
The whole world itself is caving in

Chorus

*I must have hit the end of it
Is there really nothing else..?
I can't believe it's come to this
I despise this moment I created for myself*

A spoonful of my spit weighs as much as K2
I'm pis-shy....I'm sewer-veined
I'm swamp-eyed....I'm neuter-brained
I've done all the things I ever wanted to do

Chorus

*I must have hit the end of it
Is there really nothing else..?
I can't believe it's come to this
I despise this moment I created for myself*

Bridge

Tried my best to love the pain
Tried my best to stay insane
So am I strong enough to see it through...?
Am I wild enough to make it through...?

So much ripped from me don't know what's left to save
My head's been spinning like it got smacked by a wave
All these wackos want to show me what they crave
Swear they're gonna put me in an early grave

Chorus

*I must have hit the end of it
Is there really nothing else..?
I can't believe it's come to this
I despise this moment I created for myself*

A spoonful of my spit weighs as much as K2
I'm pis-shy....I'm sewer-veined
I'm swamp-eyed....I'm neuter-brained
I've done all the things I ever wanted to do

Chorus

*I must have hit the end of it
Is there really nothing else..?
I can't believe it's come to this
I despise this moment I created for myself*
