

I ONLY TRUST PEOPLE WHOSE SCARS I CAN SEE

Hey....there's nothing to worry about anymore
Forget the hiding and forget all the fear
We cannot give back what's already been paid for
Let's just accept what we are and be glad we made it here

Chorus

*You don't have to be scared about us
You are the only person I trust
I know I am safe with you
Since your scars are plain to see
Each of us accepted and accepting
So you gotta know you are safe with me*

Bridge

Is it a calling...? Is it a sign...?
Is it a blessing...? Is it a crime...?
We are called to the solus choice
We are blessed by the distant voice
We deserve a different realm
We belong to another time

Chorus

*You don't have to be scared about us
You are the only person I trust
I know I am safe with you
Since your scars are plain to see
Each of us accepted and accepting
So you gotta know you are safe with me*

All our living shines on us like a neon light
We wish it weren't so but such is our luck
The brutal, the bad, even the beautiful all glow bright
On some part of us where they shouldn't be stuck

Chorus

*You don't have to be scared about us
You are the only person I trust
I know I am safe with you
Since your scars are plain to see
Each of us accepted and accepting
So you gotta know you are safe with me*
