

LOVE AND AFFLICTION

When you first said you loved me
I told myself I had it made
That life would turn around for me
I had a shot at being saved

But how quickly things have gotten tough
My cornflakes taste like razor blades
This all night rockin' gets so rough
I may not make it through unscathed

Chorus

Love and Affliction

It's a wicked contradiction

Who knew it could feel so good

Yep, your love is giving me affliction

Heard talk of a line
Between love and hate
Not quite sure how fine it is
'Cause on either side there's no escape

Bridge

Now all this grief
Don't give me a thrill
I believe if your love can't save me
Then, sad to say, nothing will

You know suffering's only suffering
If you let it drag you down
I keep getting more than my share
I'm sure there's enough to go around

Chorus

Love and Affliction

It's the worst addiction

Who knew it could feel so good

Yep, your love is giving me affliction

Chuck Casey
Copyright 2009