

MEEGUL

Today my ambition level is way too low
I'll just let my animal talent shine
Perhaps I'll plan my next evolution
As I sit here sipping some 3GM wine

Chorus

*Meegul is the dedication
Meegul is the incantation
Meegul is your instinct
When you're losing control*

*Meegul is the celebration
Meegul is the jubilation
Meegul is the person
You can trust with your soul*

Soon I'll be hanging with a couple of friends
Even if we do nothing it will still be great
We never dissect or summarize
Or ever think about who will navigate

Chorus

Bridge

Sometimes a day flows so easy and clean
We wonder why this can't happen all the time
Our little world turns into a fairy tale scene
Almost make-believe and it sure feels fine

We always wish for bliss like this
Having hearts of those who were raised to praise
So let us sing a simple prayer to the open sky
And keep the same fervor as the local sun's rays
