

QUINTESSENTIAL

Should you travel over every ocean
I would follow right below you
Like a fish swimming beneath a star
If the game I'm playing goes to overtime
You still won't find me stopping at a bar

Chorus

*Just let me be what you want me to be
I could be your Quintessential
Because I don't need a personality*

To see you I'd pull bat-turns on the BQE
From the Bridge to Connecting
If my relief showed up an hour late
You know I'd still be standing guard
As long as you needed protecting

Bridge

You can read me the Samurai book of strategy
Let me mingle with people I hate
Dress me up in business blues
Then send me off to work
From 9 to 5 for a full week straight

To please you I'd be a centerfold spread
If you desire, yes, I would be your cover guy
I'd even visit Thailand in May
And take it like a stroll in the park
On an Indian Summer day

Chorus

Just tell me if you love your world
Or should I revive the Fifth Monarchy...?
I could give you anything you need
If you would let me be your Quintessential
'Cause I don't even want a personality

Chorus

Chuck Casey
Copyright 2007