

RISING INTO LOVE

Explosions of emotion propel us
Beyond any lonesome starburst
If the big bang didn't jump in front
We would've hit the cosmos first

We're blowing past the constellations
They're hanging on by just a sigh
We're starting to outshine the northern lights
So they're sinking to the southern sky

Chorus

*We're gonna get ourselves rising into love
Moving at our pleasure in the opposite way
Leaving our treasure to the worms and slugs
Rising into love and flying away*

Bridge

Love for each other
Love from beginning
Fiery-flaming
Love for each other
Love without end
Pulsing-unchanging

The planets are peddling hard
Trying to keep pace
As we're heading out to Pluto
To brighten up the place

Chorus

*We're gonna get ourselves rising into love
Moving at our pleasure in the opposite way
Leaving our treasure to the worms and slugs
Rising into love and flying away*
