

SO AFRAID OF LOVIN' YOU

Things were just so easy
It was all goin' so smooth
I thought I could handle anything
Like I had nothing else to prove

I did not realize it was worthless
There was no meaning at all
I found myself driftin' through days
Thinkin' large but livin' small

Chorus

*To feel it once
Is to feel it forever
All the light
All the love
All the life
All surrender
I felt it once
I will feel it forever*

Our world became alive
Our lives became unreal
Swirling before our eyes
We had no way to deal
The doubts we had to hide
The words we never said
The fear we kept inside
The fire raging in our heads

Bridge

You appeared as in a vision
Breath-taking...Breath-giving
A silent apparition
Of light
Of love
Of life
Of surrender
I felt it once
I will feel it forever

You tried so hard to show me the way
I could not find the faith to make it through
There was nothing more for you to say
I was so afraid of lovin' you

Chorus
