

THE DAY AFTER YESTERDAY

I never knew how much
She meant to me
Never knew how strange
This world could be

Can't find any meaning
In the words that I hear
The traces of all I know
Have changed or disappeared

Chorus

*Time was bigger than itself
Then time became something else
When she went away
The day after yesterday*

Bridge

Maybe there was a secret dream
Maybe a whispered desire
Maybe it never had a name
Maybe there was a hidden fire
Or maybe we made it go away
And turned this day into
The day after yesterday

Time stays out of reach now
On its own separate course
So much of my world
Has been forever lost

Chorus

*Time was bigger than itself
Then time became something else
When she went away
The day after yesterday*
