

THE GIFT YOU SHARE

Sometimes just a knowing smile
Perhaps it's a silent glance
How the passion that you feel
Makes your eyes sparkle and dance

There's a stillness that throbs inside you
Like a presence it surrounds me
There's a glow so warm within you
I feel it wrap itself around me

CHORUS

*The gift is the giving
When you don't give a thing
Each day you offer something new
The gift you share is you*

The way you say my name
You make it sound so sweet
Your voice confers a whole new meaning
That always makes it more complete

Bridge

The giver is the offering
The giving is the spirit's lift
I can no longer tell the difference
Between the giver and the gift

Chorus

*The gift is the giving
When you don't give a thing
Each day you offer something new
The gift you share is you*

You have become a song
That is only meant for me
Music I alone can hear
A song with a secret melody

CHORUS

*The gift is the giving
When you don't give a thing
Each day you offer something new
The gift you share is you*
