

I AIN'T A KID NO MORE

No one gives a crap about
What I know or what I feel
I've been fighting one-eyed duels so long
I can't even tell which ones are real
Now the words seem to hurt a lot more
Now the wounds don't heal like they did before

CHORUS

*I can't wait to get a chance
To grab that ring
I know one day
I can do such a thing*

I'm old enough to know what to do
I'm young enough to get it done
I used to spend my time bouncing around
Now every day I gotta pay for my fun
The endless drumbeat bangin' on my brain
The intersection of too many planes

CHORUS

*Will I ever get a chance
To grab that ring
I bet one day
I can do such a thing*

Bridge

Turn this way-where do I sit...?
Turn that way-where do I fit...?
Turn that way-choices created
Turn this way-decisions debated

Chased non-stop by these January spirits
Squeezing me between the soil and the stars
If they don't catch me through the grass
Sure as hell gonna catch me through the bars
It's a screwy scene this being human
And way too friggin' time-consumin'

CHORUS

*Could I still have a chance
To grab that ring
I hope one day
I can do such a thing*
