

JUST LOVE NOW

If we could stop the world
If we really could
We should stop it now
We really should

We are always getting caught up
In every little thing
Without ever knowing
What the future will bring
The future's never cast in stone
Maybe we'll be together
Maybe alone

Chorus

*Time is not forgiving
It will surely hurt the living
There are some dreams time may not allow
So let's make this our beginning
Let us just love now*

We can't understand these times
Our future is so unclear
We have to hang onto the now
We have to hold onto the here

Bridge

If we want to stop the world
We will have to do it together
We must find a way somehow
To turn this single moment
Into our forever
And just love now

Chorus

*Time is not forgiving
It will surely hurt the living
There are some dreams time may not allow
So let's make this our beginning
Let us just love now*

I am letting the world go
You should let it go too
This is the only place
We need to hide us
To keep this stillness
Alive inside us
Forever here within me and you

Chorus

*Time is not forgiving
It will surely hurt the living
There are some dreams time may not allow
So let's make this our beginning
