

OUR PAINFUL COMEDIES

You and I have bounced around a lot
Enjoying our share of miseries
We've kept our troubles on the down low
While avoiding those wack-job remedies

Chorus

*You feel the same things that I do
You just feel them in a different way
I never know what I will get from you
As we muck through our painful comedies
That let us live to love another day*

We stick to ourselves most of the time now
There are way too many complexities
I don't need to break into your jailhouse
And you don't want any worse calamities

Chorus

Bridge

So here we are rollin' on the floor
Displayin' all our back room vanities
Still sniffin' around for something more
As we nurture our crazed non-sanities
Embrace these creepy insecurities
And savor our freaky impurities

We make this life a real love calling
When we create the pleasures of our crawling
We fill large holes with sweet sincerities
Then choose each other's favorite effigies
To consecrate all our fun-time brawling

Chorus
